GEORGIA CODE

 Current Through the 2015 Regular Session ***

TITLE 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS
CHAPTER 4. HOLIDAYS AND OBSERVANCES
O.C.G.A. § 1-4-20 (2015)

§ 1-4-20. Designation of Confederate History and Heritage Month

(a) The General Assembly hereby finds and determines that tourism is a great economic resource in Georgia; and historical, heritage, and cultural inheritance are among the tourism industry's most popular attractions. Georgia's Confederate heritage, physical artifacts and battle sites, and historic events and persons not only attract visitors, they are potentially of even greater importance and benefit to our state's economy. Increased development of our state's Confederate history and heritage as part of the tourism industry will be enhanced through recognizing, celebrating, and advertising that heritage and history.

(b) The month of April of each year is hereby designated as Confederate History and Heritage Month and shall be set aside to honor, observe, and celebrate the Confederate States of America, its history, those who served in its armed forces and government, and all those millions of its citizens of various races and ethnic groups and religions who contributed in sundry and myriad ways to the cause which they held so dear from its founding on February 4, 1861, in Montgomery, Alabama, until the Confederate ship CSS Shenandoah sailed into Liverpool Harbor and surrendered to British authorities on November 6, 1865.

(c) Officials and departments of state, county, and municipal governments, boards of education, elementary and secondary schools, colleges and universities, businesses, and all citizens are encouraged to participate in programs, displays, and activities that commemorate and honor our shared history and cultural inheritance throughout each April during Confederate History and Heritage Month.

GEORGIA DIVISION OPENS ON-LINE STORE
MAKING CONFEDERATE FLAGS AND TAGS AVAILABLE TO OUR MEMBERSHIP & THE PUBLIC
Go To WWW.GASCV.ORG and Visit the Division STORE

Given the superior quality and historical accuracy of our Flags, we have the most competitive prices available than any other on-line store selling Flags. Our major objective is having the patriotic symbols of the Confederate Soldier available for all to proudly display. All profits from the sales go directly to cover the expenses of our Division office.

What makes our Flags unique from the rest?

Our supplier, Ron Moore of the Virginia Division, SCV and founder of Richmond Depot Flags, has been studying these historical flags for many years. Ron manufactured our flags based on real battle flags of the Army of Tennessee and the Army of Northern Virginia Battle Flags which makes our Flags authentic replications based on historical originals. Our Flags with these authentic designs are exclusively sold and distributed by the Sons of Confederate Veterans. Most unique are the various star patterns that represent true Confederate flags. Not only are our Flags historically accurate, but they are made with polyester material, heavy duty grommets and has (4) rows of stitching on the flag end for durability.

The Army of Tennessee (AOT) Battle Flag. Size 3ft X 5ft.

The Army Of Tennessee flag is the most widely produced Confederate flag and often considered “The” Confederate Flag.

Our exclusive version of this Flag is based in part on the Alabama 36th and 40th Regiments Flag, the 31st TN and Kentucky 5th Regiment flags. (as shown in photos) A special feature of our flags is the correct orientation of the different directions of the stars used in many AOT and ANV Flags. The star patterns featured in our AOT flags also follow the original prototype’s star patterns of the first Battle Flags, sewn by the Cary sisters and now on display at the Museum Of The Confederacy.

We have added a center star facing up as noted in the 3rd, TN and 6th KY Regiment flags. Also notice our Flag has larger stars complementing the authentic wider white border at the edge of the blue Saint Andrews Cross, creating a very bold presentation of the AOT. The wider white border is also a unique feature to our AOT flag, designed and proportioned after the 3rd and 31st TN flags and captured 233 flag. Our flag is graphically superior to other non-authentic AOT flags offered by traditional suppliers. This Flag is made of polyester material, heavy-duty grommets and has (4) rows of stitching on the flag end for durability.

The Army of Northern Virginia (ANV) Battle Flag.
Size 51” X 51”.

This Flag is an authentic replication based on the 9th Texas Regiment Flag (as shown in photo) This flag was made by the Richmond Depot originally in 1864. The direction of the stars on this Flag was often used in many ANV Flags such as Col. George S. Patton, Sr.’s and is reproduced here for the first time; note the stars of the 255 and 407 Battle flags that were captured and returned to the Museum Of The Confederacy, feature the same star pattern.

The 1956 State of Georgia Flag.
Size 3ft X 5ft.

This beautiful Flag flew over the State of Georgia for nearly 50 years and is often referred to as the “Real” Georgia State Flag because of the shenanigans employed that replaced it and because the citizens of Georgia never got a fair vote to choose the State Flag of Georgia. It was originally created to honor the Georgia Confederate Veteran as indicated in the legislation that instated this State Flag. The Battle Flag design is the same design as our Army of Tennessee Flag but with a larger center star to present it as a true memorial Flag. This Memorial version of the Georgia State Flag was designed by Richmond Depot Flag’s Ron Moore and is exclusive to the Georgia Division SCV. This Flag is made with polyester material with 2 heavy-duty grommets and has (4) rows of stitching on the flag end for durability.

Memorial Flags:
These Memorial flags are reproduced with a much larger center star that was a representation of the many post-war Memorial Flags used across the South. We offer the ANV and AOT Memorial Grave side flags with a 30” wooden staff, plastic retainer clip to secure the flag on the staff and a Gold “top.” Note the larger star of the post-war AOT flag from the Florida Soldiers Home.

Welcome, Cadet Member: Seth Akers
Greetings Brothers,

The past few months have been a “trying time.” We have fought and won a battle with the State Department of Revenue to regain our SCV tag, watched as New Orleans politicians make every effort to remove all vestiges of the Confederacy from their city, seen our own governor decide he would rather side with the radical left, going against the God fearing people of his own state, among other things. We have individuals running for the office of President that shouldn’t be running for local Dog Cather and they try to blame everything on our Confederate ancestors while ignoring the radical terrorist they continue to allow into our Country. Our “leaders”, and I use that term very loosely, are more worried about their financial supporters than about “we the people”! Believe me I could go on with this for hours, but I shouldn’t inject my personal beliefs into your schedule, it’s too depressing.

I have spent the past weeks in a struggle with my body, yes I know it’s fat and OLD, but it continues to wear out and let me down. I have torn the other rotator cuff and at my age that’s horrible. Then my left knee is failing, I will probably have to have it replaced within the next few months. What’s next?? I’ve had a good life, and have some of the best friends a man could ask for, have a very understanding wife (of 51 years) and a wonderful Grand-Daughter (oh yeah, a great son and daughter in law). I’ve had the privilege to lead this Division for about 10 years and a wonderful Grand-Daughter (oh yeah, a great son and daughter in law). I’ve had the privilege to lead this Division for about 10 years and while I compare it to herding squirrels, I’ve enjoyed it. It’s been an honor.

As we move ahead we have several major tasks to accomplish:

1. We need to convince those in power that we can’t forget our past. It’s what the state is built on.
2. We have to teach our youth that being of Confederate Heritage is something to be proud of. Thereby support our Youth Camp.
3. We must impress on our friends and neighbors that we are the real hope for the future, not the hate mongers that our opposition try to portray us as.
4. We must forge ahead, recruit new members, and bring those who have left our ranks back.
5. And we must remain true to the SCV and what it stands for and always “Live the Charge”.

As always men, don’t forget who we are here for: Our ancestors and the future of the Southland. Support your heritage and recruit! Long live the Confederacy, Jack

[Division Adjutant's Report]

Victory for the Georgia Division

I declare a VICTORY for the Georgia Division, Sons of Confederate Veterans. During this open season of Confederate hysteria we made it through three months of a Georgia State Legislative Session without any anti-Southern legislation even making it out of any House or Senate Committees, in spite of House Bill 760 being introduced which would change Stone Mountain from being a memorial to the Confederacy and give the authority to State agencies to define and change monuments if they deem them inappropriate. Also in spite of Senate Bill 294 that would have prohibited the recognition of public and legal holidays honoring, recognizing, observing, or celebrating the Confederate States of America, its history, or the military and political leaders thereof, and repeal the observing of Confederate History and Heritage Month.

I attribute this VICTORY to your and other like-minded Southerners great efforts. We were able to flood the legislative chambers with letters, e-mails and phone calls to our Representatives making them aware of this hideous legislation, in most cases they weren’t even aware of until we brought it to their attention in a big way.

Division Communications

Knowing is half the battle, and with our new Division-wide e-mail “Call to Action” notification list, improving our Division Facebook communications and by placing Facebook ads we were able to reach at least 125,000 people to make those in and outside of our ranks aware of this hideous legislation. As a Division we have made some major steps forward by improving our internal and external communications and I’m very proud of all our efforts in doing so. It’s been long overdue. A special thanks to our Internal Communications Officer Ray McBirney for issuing our Division press releases, keeping our web-site up-dated and introducing the Division to the Facebook ad initiatives, that reaches 100,000 + like-minded Southerners. We have received thousands of dollars in donations from the public from that advertising initiative. My personal thanks to our Division Commander Jack Bridgwell for supporting and authorizing all these new communication initiatives. It takes a good leader to have the faith and trust in his Officers to move forward on new initiatives.

We have to continue to build on our communications efforts to keep up with the latest technologies. Please if you haven't done so, send your and/or your Camp's e-mail list to our Division Secretary Kristen Dorety at secretary@gascv.org.

Division meets with Lobbying firm

We met with a prominent lobbying firm in March to discuss what they could do for the Division in our endeavor to strengthen our monument protect laws, specifically by getting legislation passed to amend Code Section 50-3-1 of the Official Code of Georgia. We need a continuous presence at the State Capitol, keeping us up-dated on any bad legislation efforts. Currently the members we met with are discussing with all their partners in the firm whether or not they...

Division Store is on-line at www.gascv.org

As you have read in this issue we have been able to launch our on-line Division store in March. Selling Flags, stick flags, Tags and Pastor Weaver's CDs. The designs of our flags are exclusive because they are replicas of actual historical flags and are only available to the Sons of Confederate Veterans to sell. Sales have been very active. We have distributed over 2,500 stick flags to our Camps for Confederate memorial month along with many other sales. All profits from the store goes towards running our Division Office, which I hope will be self-supporting over time. Please visit our on-line store at www.gascv.org. Division office is open at new location

Division By-Laws Proposal

Posted in this issue of the Georgia Confederate is the proposed by-laws to be voted on at this Division Reunion in Covington on June 11, 2016. It is also an election year and all Division Offices are open for election. It is very important that all our Camps' Delegates participate and are present at the 2016 Reunion for this important business session. If you have any questions regarding any of the proposed by-laws and elections please contact me anytime.

Prorated Dues Period

As a reminder we are in the first prorated dues period of February to April, and between May to July the second prorated dues period begins. Below is a summary of that dues structure:

Georgia Division Dues:
$12 for annual Ga. Division Dues between August 1 to November 1 for new and renewing members.
$15 for reinstatement dues if annual dues are not received by the November 1 deadline date ($3 reinstatement/late fee)
$18 for Ga. Division prorated Dues for new members. joining during February, March or April. These are prorated to pay for the current fiscal year and pay next year dues as well.

SCV National Dues:
$30 for annual renewes dues.
$35 for new members.
$35 reinstatement dues if annual dues are not received by the October 31st deadline date ($5 reinstatement/late fee).
$50 for SCV National prorated Dues if joining during February, March, or April. These are prorated to pay for the current fiscal year and pay next year dues as well.
$42.50 for SCV National prorated Dues if joining during May, June or July. These are prorated to pay for the current fiscal year and pay next year dues as well.

Remember new members can always pay the standard Division dues of $12, but dues will be due again on August 1, 2016. So prorating is always the best option for both National and Division dues if the member can afford them.

Always at your service,

Proposed By-Law Amendment No. 1,
Tabled from 2015 Reunion (Revised)
ARTICLE XIII SUCCESSION AND REMOVAL OF OFFICERS
(Changes Bold font and Underlined)
Section 3. Any Acting Division Commander, elected in the manner aforementioned in this Article, shall serve as Acting Division Commander until the advent conclusion of the next Division Convention unless the formerly elected Georgia Division Commander was removed from office for cause by either the Georgia Division or by International Headquarters and has been cleared of all charges before the next Division Convention. In this event, the replaced Commander may resume his former position as Commander, when cleared, should he so desire. If so, the Acting Division Commander may resume his former office as Lt. Commander.

Rationale: The purpose of this proposed by-law is to provide clarification in the event the elected Georgia Division Commander is removed from office and subsequently has been cleared of all charges.

Proposed By-Law Amendment No. 2,
Tabled from 2015 Reunion (Revised)
ARTICLE VI. DIVISION OFFICERS,
(Changes Bold font and Underlined)
Section 2. At each Division Convention held in a year the date of which is an even number, the Georgia Division shall elect a Division Commander, two Division Lieutenant Commanders (one North and one South), a Division Adjutant and a Division Judge Advocate. At each Division Convention held in a year the date of which is an odd number, Brigade Commanders for each of the Brigades in the Georgia Division will be elected. Any Division officer desiring to run for another Division office before the term of his current office expires must announce his candidacy in written form to the Division Adjutant and Division Commander at least sixty (60) days prior to the Annual Division Convention. This Division Officer’s position will be considered an open position to be voted on at the same Annual Convention, regardless of whether it is an even or odd year. This Officer shall remain qualified to run for his vacated office should he not be elected to the new position.

Rationale: This proposed by-law change would have the elections of Division wide officers and brigade commanders on a staggered term basis which would be a positive change to our election procedures. The main objective of this change is that it will increase membership participation at each Division Reunion to get our membership more involved. Changing this election process will also make our Reunions more efficient by splitting the election process in two separate Reunions rather than having them all at one Reunion.

Timothy Pilgrim, Georgia Division Adjutant, Kennesaw Battlefield Camp # 700

Proposed By-Law Amendment No. 3
ARTICLE XIII SUCCESSION AND REMOVAL OF OFFICERS
(Changes Bold font and Underlined)
Section 5. The office of Each Officer elected or appointed in accordance with this Article shall be filled by election at the next Division Convention for the unexpired term of the vacated Office. The acting Division officer shall be qualified to run for said unexpired term, must be ratified at the next Division Convention for the unexpired term of the vacated Office or new elections held by that Convention, for the unexpired term of the vacated Office.

Rationale: At the 2015 Division Reunion there was a major point of contention regarding the procedure to follow if an Officer who was appointed or elected by the Executive Council between Reunions should be ratified only or a new election should be conducted when it is a contested position. This by-law change clarifies that point by indicating elections will be held.

Submitted by: Dan Coleman, Division Judge Advocate, Chattahoochee Guards Camp # 1639
Timothy Pilgrim, Georgia Division Adjutant, Kennesaw Battlefield Camp # 700

Proposed By-Law Amendment No. 4
ARTICLE VIII. DIVISION CONVENTION
(Changes Bold font and Underlined)
Section 5. Prior to the commencement of Registration, the Division Adjutant shall appoint and be chairman of a Credentials Committee, composed of five (5) to nine (9) members, whose duties shall be to man the Registration Desk during the published time period of registration; receive and verify credential forms presented by Delegates from a Roll provided by the Division Adjutant; record number of Camps present for quorum purposes; and submit a “Roll of Camps” to the Division Commander upon closing of Registration; and shall be responsible for all election procedures and verifications.

Rationale: The Credential Committee Chairman (Division Adjutant) has always verified Delegate credentials and has been responsible for our Division election procedures and verification, along with reporting those results to the Delegates. At the 2015 Division Reunion a separate “ratification” election was conducted by the appointed Chief of Staff which was handled improperly without proper Delegate verification, which lead to multiple ballots being distributed and then leading into chaos and the ballots becoming tainted. Our membership elects a Division Adjutant and with that position comes a level of trust and responsibility to handle these situations in a proper and fair manner. This By-Law change enforces those duties.

Submitted by: Timothy Pilgrim, Georgia Division Adjutant, Kennesaw Battlefield Camp # 700

Proposed By-Law Amendment No. 5
ARTICLE III. DIVISION STRUCTURE,
Purpose: To have Haralson County placed into the 12th Brigade
SECTION 3: Paragraph 12 & 13 (Changes Bold font and Underlined)
The 11th Brigade will consist of those Camps situated in the following Counties: Camps in Haralson situated South of I-20. Carroll, Douglas, Heard, Coweta, and those Camps in Fulton situated South of an East-West line which intersects I-75N at its junction with I-85N.

The 12th Brigade will consist of those Camps situated in the following Counties: Polk, Paulding, Cobb, Camps in Haralson situated North of I-20 and those Camps in Fulton situated North of an East-West line which intersects I-75N at its junction with I-85N. “ Reasoning: To realign with historical accuracy the upper northwestern Georgia counties from which the entire 40th Georgia Infantry Regiment were drawn; to return a more equitable delegate balance into the 12th Brigade following losses of the Cedartown Guards Camp 0077 and Picketts Mill Volunteers Camp 2035; to provide greater official representation to those areas in southern Polk, western Paulding, and upper Haralson and all of the 12th Brigade.

Proposed By-Law Amendment No. 6

ARTICLE III. DIVISION STRUCTURE,

Purpose: To move Putnam County into the Georgia's 3rd Brigade

SECTION 3: (Changes Bold font and Underlined)

Art. III, Section 3, paragraph 3: insert the word "Putnam" after the word "Morgan".

The 3rd Brigade will consist of those camps situated in the following Counties: Stephens, Banks, Jackson, Barrow, Walton, Franklin, Madison, Clarke, Oconee, Morgan, Putnam, Hart, Elbert, Oglethorpe, Greene, Wilkes, Taliaferro, and Lincoln.

Art. III, Section 3, paragraph 4: delete the word "Putnam".

The 4th Brigade shall consist of those Camps situated in the following Counties: Monroe, Crawford, Peach, Houston, Pulaski, Jones, Bibb, Twiggs, Bleckley, Dodge, Putnam, Baldwin, Wilkinson, Laurens, Hancock, Washington, Telfair and Johnson.

Reasoning: Putnam County is culturally, geographically, and historically aligned as part of Georgia's "Lake Country" with Greene and Morgan Counties. The "Lake Country" counties are currently split by the Georgia Division between two Brigades; therefore, this request is being made in order for Putnam to be aligned in the same Brigade with Morgan and Greene.

A NEW WAR REQUIRES A DIFFERENT STRATEGY

By Jim Dale, Camp 700, Marietta, GA

A few years ago when the Sons of Confederate Veterans (SCV) was taken over by radical flag waving lunatics I wrote an article that appeared in The Georgia Confederate newspaper asking for calm and sanity in defending our southern heritage. My thoughts were by flag waving we were playing directly into the hands of the enemy. The leadership, not unlike Pickett's Charge, was marching us to glory in a hail of fire with no cover. Now we are under attack again. The enemy's success, like the domino theory of the cold war, has resulted in Confederate heritage falling like dominos in all southern states. The SCV can't do a great deal in the near time to stem this wave of hatred. However, with patience and development of effective tactics and winning strategy we can in time make strides to slow and possibly halt destruction of our heritage.

If the SCV's continues its rowdy tactics of the past it will assure the loss of the Confederacy of our ancestors and their heritage. We must learn from the past and develop smart ways of fighting those without honor or principle. A few years ago William Latham developed a different strategy that had great potential for success. Unfortunately, he did not gain the necessary support from our organization. He worked to redesign the SCV's image to return to its origin as a respected professional historical and heritage based organization. He met with state and local officials and representatives to present our cause and to work with them to preserve Georgia's Confederate heritage. Latham's professional appearance, dress, and demeanor impressed those he met and enhanced our image. He abandoned the emotional rhetoric and presented reasonable well thought out ideas to support his positions.

In my article I tried to further this strategy. I suggested continued development of professionalism within the SCV. Perhaps finding experts to teach classes on the subject? We should send representatives to meetings and make an effort to become active members of government, civic, historical, and professional organization's in order to explain and gain a platform to present the SCV's mission and vision. Our members should become pillars of the community participating in efforts to save, restore, and increase historical markers; assist state, federal, and local park restoration and beautification projects; participate in celebrations and community events, and when permitted speak to students and teachers on various historical subjects not just the Civil War. Finally, we should not miss opportunities to perform living history whenever possible at schools and public programs. All this should be done with an eye toward respectability and demonstrated chivalrous gentlemanly behavior. If we only make our voices heard to those who we know want to hear them we are preaching to the choir. We must be pro-active in seeking out those who do not necessarily know us except by the false reputation provided from our enemies. The only way to beat an enemy who lies and uses disinformation is to prove them wrong with the truth and demonstrate it with class and courage. Studying Mr. Latham's methods and practices and putting them into effect with solid support across the SCV is a winning strategy in today's war. Deo Vindice.

Sine Die

The Georgia Legislative session of 2016 has met Sine Die on Friday, March 25

While other states like Alabama Tennessee Virginia and Louisiana saw their politicians work on Pro-Confederate Heritage Protection legislation, we here in Georgia were forced to remain silent.

A number of bills specifically designed to either protect or restore Confederate heritage saw initial hopeful & promising efforts come to a heart breaking end half-way through the session.

HB 50 , The "Georgia Heritage Protection Bill" from last year remained on this year's calendar, but remained untouched since April 2015. Current 50-3-1 Code section remains toothless, and needs serious rework.

HB 855 , The restoration bill of official Holiday names for Robert E Lee and Confederate Memorial Day were stripped of all sponsors and left to die.

HR 1179 , The bill to solidify Stone Mountain Confederate Park into the State Constitution was crushed when all sponsors pulled their names.

HR 1457 Naming a bridge in Hall County for General James Longstreet was unable to cross over the 3rd reading threshold and drowned.

A small consolation can be had by the fact that the 2 anti-Confederate bills also failed.

HB 760 , The bill to remove all Confederate only protections at Stone Mountain Confederate Park failed, as did SB 294 , the bill to eliminate all Confederate recognition via holidays, and the prevention of the Governor from issuing Confederate recognition proclamations.

This year Republican Governor Deal breaks the annual Confederate History Month Proclamation streak since it was started by Democrat Governor Barnes in 2002.

FACES & PLACES/DAY 31:
St. Matthews’ Caleb Glover awarded Southern Cross of Honor

Caleb Glover, an African-American who was awarded the Southern Cross of Honor by the Paul McMichael Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, played a pivotal role in the history of St. Matthews.

Glover was born around 1827 and died in 1920.

He was the manservant of Col. Olin Dantzler, a St. Matthews native who suffered a fatal battle wound on June 2, 1864, in Bermuda Hundred, Virginia during the Civil War.

Glover accompanied Dantzler to the battlefield during the Civil War and returned Dantzler’s body to St. Matthews for burial.

Glover also recovered and returned home the body of Col. Laurence Keitt of St. Matthews, who suffered a mortal wound during the Battle of Cold Harbor on June 1 and died near Richmond, Virginia on June 2, 1864.

Dantzler taught Glover how to read and write. To those in the Dantzler family and community, he was known as “Uncle Caleb.”

Charles G. Dantzler, the eldest of Col. Dantzler’s sons, took care of Glover until his death. Those who knew Glover described him as truthful, reliable and one who never used bad language.

Glover’s grave is maintained by the Col. Olin M. Dantzler Camp 73 of the Sons of Confederate Veterans. He’s buried in the Bethel AME Church Cemetery.

LITTLE MARY PHAGAN DAY IN GEORGIA

Perhaps the most well-known and most horrific murder in the history of Georgia occurred on April 26, 1913 when little Mary Phagan was brutally raped and murdered while going to collect her wages of $1.20 before attending the parade for the aging Georgia veterans on Confederate Memorial Day.

The following proclamation was created in 2013 by Compatriot Ben Sinclair and Compatriot Kim M. Beck establishing “Little Mary Phagan Day”. It is hereby published as commencement of an annual remembrance:

A Proclamation
Little Mary Phagan Day

Whereas:
Little Mary Phagan was born to Frances Elizabeth L. “Fannie” Phagan Benton Coleman and William Joshua Phagan in Florence, Alabama, on the 1st day of June, in the year of our Lord 1899; and

Whereas:
After the death of William Joshua Phagan, the family moved to Marietta, Georgia; and

Whereas:

Dear Editor,

While perusing the list of Camps and their donations to the Georgia Division in 2015, it occurred to me that we as individuals can contribute a lot of money for Division projects in 2016. Our hate-filled, unreasonable, uneducated foes have large sums of money in their coffers and they use the funds to buy and intimidate weak-kneed politicians and spread lies that suit their mean-spirited agenda.

We will never have those kinds of funds, but I strongly believe the men of the Georgia Division are willing to do their duty and raise at least fifty-thousand dollars for our Division projects in 2016. If each member donated twenty dollars, we would surpass the fifty-thousand dollar mark enabling us to put up a stronger fight against our adversaries. Twenty dollars is eighty quarters. Any of us can save eighty quarters in a year’s time.

We can do this, my fellow Compatriots. Send your donation to Division Adjutant Tim Pilgrim as soon as you can…and recruit at least one new member in 2016.

Deo Vindice!

“Let thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children. And let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us: and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.” Psalm 90:16-17.

All of us hope that when our days come to an end that we have not lived our lives in vain. We would like to think that what we have done here on this earth has made a difference somehow.

Trying to understand the meaning of life has never been an easy exercise. When the War of Northern Aggression ended, soldiers and civilians alike had the problematic task of picking up the pieces to move forward. What few pieces there were left to pick up.

Some time back I read the documented diary and papers of Chaplain Lachlan C. Vass, 27th Virginia Infantry who served in Petersburg at the General Hospital. I wrote down some of the quotes and entries from Chaplain Vass’s work. I wish I had noted who had written the article so I could give proper acknowledgement, so I ask forgiveness. His writings probably well echoed the feelings of most Southerners after the War:

“Life has a burden for every man’s shoulder,
Some may escape from its trouble and cares;
Miss it in youth, ’twill come when we’re older,
And fit us as close as the garments we wear.”

Among the papers of Chaplain Vass is a listing of wounded and sick Confederates, and he catalogued from the hospital. The first entry lists: “Dan Curry, Age 36, Co. K, 6th LA, Left leg Amputated below...” From the detailed listing of soldiers, it’s quiet obvious to assume that Chaplain Vass prayed and consoled every one of the two-hundred and ninety-six men. Rev. Vass recorded each man’s name, age, regiment and the wounds they suffered. Like the Good Shepherd of the Bible, Chaplain Vass knew his men by name. Chaplain Vass wrote letters home for these men and offered comforting prayers as he read the Word of God to the wounded and dying. He became an angel of mercy to those whom he served.

Another excerpt from Chaplain Vass’s writings:

“Sorrow comes into our lives uninvited,
Robbing our hearts of their treasures of song.
Lovers grow old, and friendships are slighted.
Yet somehow or other, we worry along.”

Faith doesn’t protect us from sorrow or from human conflict. With their once proud nation destroyed, the army defeated, the land in ruins and the prospects poor, the entire people of the South groaned. They began to wonder what the last four years meant. Had the lives of valiant men been wasted? Was it all in vain?

After the fall of Petersburg and the end of the War, Rev. Vass spent the next fourteen months there, ministering to hospital patients and preaching and serving the people at Second Presbyterian Church. Another verse I’d like to share is one Mrs. L. C. Vass found in her husband’s pocket after his death on September 28, 1896:

“Somehow or other, the pathway grows brighter.
Just when we mourn there is none to befriend.
Hope in the heart, makes the burden seem lighter,
And somehow or other, WE get to the End!”

Did Chaplains Vass’s life count? How would the men in the hospitals where he served answer this question? What would his fellow chaplains say about his servant attitude as he served as the permanent secretary of the Chaplain’s Association of the Second and Third Army Corps?

Your life is a witness to your own generation and to the ones to come. When you ask yourself “Does my life count?” Think of those faithful Christians who faced heartache and loss beyond our comprehension. Consider their faithfulness in the face of a desolate unknown. Faith is the impulse which quickens our weary bodies and illuminates our souls. God will establish the work of our hands. We get to the end with God’s help and beyond the end lies the promises of God fulfilled for all who put their trust in Him. May God help us to be as faithful as our ancestors as we carry the “Charge.” May we stand firm in our faith and in our convictions when those around us call our ancestors traitors and come after the memorials we have set in place to honor them. God and truth is on our side!

Georgia Division's “Confederate Flag Day” Ride and Rally, March 5th, 2016
Hosted by the Haralson Invincibles Camp 673

Confederate Flag Day' rally, members of our Camp began planning for as big an event as we could put together. Combined with assistance from Division leadership – our intrepid band of Southern Warriors brought together many positive elements from last year's rides and rallies, and the final product was truly a great day for anyone with the blood of Confederate Veterans running through their veins, unashamed to hold a flag in public!

The weather, which had been cold and rainy all week long, finally broke the evening before, providing a warmer, crystal clear Saturday with a nice, gentle breeze.

Providence had truly Blessed our event.

Starting and ending at Tallapoosa's Helton – Howland Veterans Park, the ride portion began at 10:30am with a long convoy of vehicles proudly displaying numerous Confederate Flags. The Ride was headed-up by a Haralson County Sheriff's Deputy.

As we ventured through the city of Tallapoosa, officers of that city's Police Department had blocked off major intersections, which allowed our vehicles to stay close together which, in turn, provided our group added protection. Oncoming traffic along Highway 100 pulled off to the shoulder, as our escorted procession headed north to Polk County.

Arriving in Cedartown, a brief detour into the Kroger Supermarket parking lot was made in order to pick up many more folks with vehicles who were ready to join the Confederate Flag Caravan.

These individuals were from numerous localities from all across North Georgia – Dalton, Dahlonega, Rome, Blue Ridge, etc.

Among the Ride participants were representatives of the Georgia SCV Mechanized Cavalry.

Our Confederate Flag Ride route spanned 10 cities across 5 Counties and through 2 Brigades, taking just under 3 hours to complete.

All along the entire route, we were witness to a steady barrage of positive horn honks, cheerful waves, huge smiles and enthusiastic thumbs-up!

Returning to the Veterans Park, we lined up our vehicles and took some group photos, as we awaited the day's speakers and musical performance. Approximately 100 people were present . . . folks from Alabama and Georgia were in attendance, with multiple SCV Camps being represented. Among those participating were not only just from extreme North Georgia or locally from West Georgia, there was also a family who hailed from Walton County (Monroe). Division Adjutant Tim Pilgrim and his lovely daughters also made an appearance.

Commander Bearden provided details on why we celebrate the 1st National (Stars and Bars) and the 3rd National (Blood Stained Banner) and explained the historical Southern Heritage significance of March 4th. He then spoke about all of the attacks and losses inflicted upon Georgia's Confederate Heritage since June 2015, and encouraged everyone to Stand, Fight and Never Back Down, and everyone agreed they would!

Compatriot Jerry Segal read a powerful speech that stirred many passions. He has a great voice and is very well spoken.

After Brother Jerry, the main speaker then took the stage – Haralson County Sheriff Eddie Mixon.

Mr. Mixon spoke eloquently about his Confederate ancestors, his pride in his Confederate heritage and that he proudly displays a Confederate flag and relics in his office. Sheriff Mixon's speech was very moving and heartfelt, for which he received a rousing ovation.

After having read most of all accounts concerning the Flag Day events across America on March 5th, Commander Bearden concluded that none had police escort or the involvement of as much local government support, as our event had!

Special musical guest, Brad Weaver, aka 'Celtic Confederate,' made the trip from nearby Gadsden, Alabama. Although Brad had first recorded his song "Raise Your Battle Flag" in 2011, it was rediscovered last year and became a huge sensation all across the South, due in large part, because of the 2015 attacks upon Confederate symbols.

The song's title remains popular on social media sites such as Facebook and twitter.

Its twitter hashtag is: #raiseyourbattleflag.

The esteemed Virginia Flaggers, within their own multiple flag-raising videos, have utilized the Alabama resident's song.

There was no doubt, Brad came to play his guitar and sing his songs.

Also, it was amazing to see the entire gallery of Confederates waving their Battle Flags and singing along, while a video was being made of the whole event.

The 1st Confederate Flag Day Ride and Rally was a huge success; it will be even bigger next year and with Heavenly Father's grace, an annual Southern Heritage tradition for the ages.

Our heartfelt thanks to all true Confederates who attended!

It is always wonderful to see people Advancing the Cause and Colors while Living the Charge, which is why we, in the Haralson Invincibles, are most proud!

THE 15th ANNUAL NATIONAL CONFEDERATE MEMORIAL SERVICE at STONE MOUNTAIN PARK

On Saturday, April 2nd at 1:00 p.m., the Georgia Society Military Order of the Stars & Bars held a rally and memorial service in front of the Reflection Pool at Stone Mountain.

David Floyd and David Denard were the sponsors of the event which is held annually in honor of the Confederate Veterans who served their Country, defending their families and homes against the northern invaders.

Many attendees brought picnic lunches and enjoyed a Dixie Day at Stone Mountain.

Confederate Patriots Kick Off Confederate Heritage & History Month ~ 2016 ~

As one of the few, and as long as I draw breath in this mortal state, I pledge my labors and my sacred honor to live out “The Charge” to the best of my abilities, and to never allow a Confederate Veteran's memory to be lost by neglect to future generations. So help me God!

History of the Georgia Division, Sons of Confederate Veterans
By Mark Pollard, Georgia Division Historian

Part (1)
“The Early Years”

By the mid 1890s it became clear that the aging United Confederate Veterans, (UCV), could not continue to carry on the commemorative activities and educational activities without help. There were discussions at the 1895 UCV reunion concerning the need to bring the sons into the organization to carry on the functions of the UCV. A letter was sent out by some sons in Richmond to various UCV camps in 1895 asking that each send a group of sons to the 1896 reunion to be held in Richmond. The call was well heard as there were delegations from throughout the Confederation in attendance. Two from Georgia were there: one from Macon and a smaller one from the Atlanta area.

At the first reunion attended by these sons it was agreed that an organization would be formed and would be called the Sons of Confederate Veterans (SCV). It would require the signing of ten members, so charters were issued to those with that number or more in attendance. Only the delegation from Macon was able to gain a charter in 1896 and the delegation was under the leadership of Dr. John L. Hardeman who would also serve later as the first commander of the Georgia Division. This camp was named Thomas Hardeman Camp No. 18 (since named the Edward Dorr Tracy Camp No. 18) and was chartered in 1896. There were 36 camps chartered at the first reunion.

Atlanta was represented at the first reunion by a small delegation lead by an Atlanta attorney named Thomas R. R. Cobb, II a grandson of Confederate Senator and General Howell Cobb. He was accompanied at the reunion by Walter Terry Colquitt, also of Atlanta and the son of Confederate General Alfred Holt Colquitt. They did not have the required ten members at the reunion but at the second reunion they were chartered the John B. Gordon Camp No. 46. The date was June, 1897.

The National organization of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, (SCV) held their first convention in the summer of 1896. Just one week after the convention, a report appeared in "The Confederate Veteran" describing how many organizations of sons had begun to function and how a call had gone out by the R.E. Lee Camp (later #1) for a meeting in Richmond. At the first convention only 36 Camps were able to meet chartering requirements and only one in Georgia (#18 in Macon Commanded by D. John Hardeman).

The list of chartering SCV Officers were:
Commander: J.E.B. Stuart Jr. of Richmond, Va.
Quartemaster: R.H. Pinckney of Charleston, S.C.
Surgeon: Dr. Stuart McGuire of Richmond, Va.
Commissary: E.P. McKissick of Asheville, N.C.
Chaplain: Bishop T.P. Gailor, of Tenn.

By the following summer in 1897, it was clear in articles published in the "Confederate Veteran" by CIC Smyth that the entire Georgia Division was virtually inactive. This (Georgia Division) is practically unorganized, but members of Gen. John B. Gordon, (Camp #46 of Atlanta, Ga.) started making strenuous efforts to organize camps throughout the State and also to make the reunion of the sons next July a success.

Its Commander, Compatriot W.W. Davies was quite instrumental in the early organization of the Division. He sent out to every Son in Georgia circulars, giving instructions as how to form a camp, also sending them a constitution to aid them in adopting their own, and other necessary information.

The results had been to arouse the entire State and Camps had already formed at Gainesville, Athens, Waycross and Henry County, while others were being formed and chartered.

At the third annual reunion of the SCV in 1899, CIC Robert Smyth graciously declined to run for a third term. By 1899, Smyth had built the SCV into a large body. The convention in 1899 elected Comrade Judge, Walter T. Colquitt of Atlanta. He was the son of Governor and Confederate General Alfred Holt Colquitt, who was an absolutely loyal compatriot. He was a member for many years until his death in 1936.

The period between 1900-1902 was an eventful one for the Georgia Division. In 1902, the general convention was held in Dallas, Texas. Members of the convention voted to extend credentials to William F. Parkhurst Jr. as Commander of the Georgia Division. The Division was expanding with 4 new Camps in 1900. Phil Cook #141, Albany; Tattnall #154, Reidsville; W.H.T. Walker #158, Augusta; and Dixie Boys #163, Thomasville.

During this period, was the opening of the long sought Confederate Veterans Home and the other was the creation and dedication of the monument commemorating the spot where Confederate Gen. Walker was killed in 1864.

The Soldiers Home, first built in 1889 was an eloquent beautiful Victorian structure was destroyed by fire. In 1901, a new magnificent (and stone) structure was built. It was a triumph of the citizens of Georgia, once again, over fire.

The second important event of the turn of the century was the ceremony dedicating the monument to Gen. Walker. The monument, itself a testament to cooperation between North and South as cannons had to come from the U.S. Army, was unveiled by the General's tiny granddaughter in a tearful ceremony. It is a sad story, especially when one considers that today the monument sits at a busy intersection (Glenwood Avenue at Interstate 20) in a small grass-island and the outer wall with the steel fence and cannons is now completely missing. It is still there, however a bit worn and neglected.

The years 1903-1904 were busy, yet sad times in the Georgia Division. The general convention was held in New Orleans in 1903. A large delegation from Georgia attended and the convention was considered one of the best held.

The year 1904 produced profound sadness with the passing of General John B. Gordon. The death of General Gordon was mourned throughout the Nation as issues of the "Confederate Veteran" ran resolution after resolution from Camps throughout the Georgia Division and the United States. Many of the resolutions pointed out the many and wonderful things General Gordon had accomplished as General for half of Lee's Army; to Senator; to Georgia Governor; to life Commander of the United Confederate Veterans. He was intensely missed.

The year 1905 brought notable events. The Georgia Divi-

In August of 1861, the Georgia Line of the Army of Northern Virginia was formed. The Georgia legislature passed a resolution to build a monument in honor of the Confederate soldiers. The monument was completed in 1895 and is located in Stone Mountain Park. It is the largest Confederate monument in the world.

In the 1900s, the SCV Camp of Atlanta drafted a motion to change section 18 of article V of the Constitution of the Georgia Division of the SCV. The motion was adopted at the 1905 convention. The change was to make consistent one year terms for national elected officers.

The change to section 18 of article V was presented back during the final evening session and it was adopted. Finally, the convention moved to elect new officers for 1905. As commander we had W. Lamar Williams and as adjutant we had W.W. Solomon.

In other 1905 events, the Monument Committee, composed many of the real veterans of Atlanta, which was formed in 1904 to construct a suitable statue of General Gordon, made a most important selection of an artist to build the monument. He was Solon H. Borglum of Utah. This well-known family was associated with both the Stone Mountain Craving and Mount Rushmore. It was a testament to Gordon's standing that such an artist would be sought for the statute that the landmark of its location would be on the Capital grounds at Atlanta.

It has been difficult to find specific information concerning the year 1906, however, it must be remembered that at that time the veterans were very active and the sons were just "along for the ride." Maturity and concerted activity by the Sons increased as the ranks of veterans dwindled. In that particular year, the veterans were very active as an article appearing in the Confederate Veteran made specific note of Georgia's prominent old soldiers. An excerpt from that article speaks for itself.

"Georgia's Patriotism and Gratitude"

Soon after Appomattox, Georgia began to show her appreciation of the valuable and valued services of her son's by electing them to represent her in her legislative halls and in the halls of Congress.

In the United States Senate she has called from time to time, Lieutenant General John B Gordon, General A.H. Colquitt, Private T.M. Norwood, War Governor J.E. Brown, Surgeon H.V. Miller, Captain Patrick Walsh, Captain Pope Barrow, ex-Confederate General B.H. Hill and Major A.O. Bacon.

In the Governor's chair she has placed Colonel James M Smith, Thirteenth Georgia; General A.H. Colquitt; A.H. Stephens, Vice President of the Confederate States; Colonel J.S. Boynton, Major H.D. McDaniel, General J.B. Gordon, Private W.J. Norris, and Colonel A.D. Candler.

For every member she has sent to Congress was a Confederate soldier...

Part (2), History of the Georgia Division, Sons of Confederate Veterans will continue in the upcoming editions of the Georgia Confederate magazine.

In an effort to document the history of the Georgia Division, Sons of Confederate Veterans, I am in the process of compiling as much information as possible on the Division. Research shows there isn't much detailed information about the Division until around the mid 1920's. If your SCV Camp has ever held a reunion in the past, please submit who the elected Division Officers were in that particular year. Submit that or any other past Division information to:

Camp of the Unknown Soldier: News from Camp 2218

On Saturday, February 27, 2016, Joel B. Whitehead, Jr. (left), Chaplain of The Camp of The Unknown Soldier #2218 of Old Clinton, Jones County, Georgia, took part in a day-long living history program sponsored by The Cannonball House and The Hay House, historical Macon, GA sites. Joel spoke to hundreds on interested attendees about War period remedies and medical procedures.

Accompanying Joel in this endeavor was Camp 2218, Adjutant, John Wayne Dobson (right) who spoke to visitors about wool harvesting, cleaning, carding, and spinning, including an on-site demonstration of the preparation and use of various vegetable dyes used during the War period.

The Rebelaires

The Rebelaires — Dave Griffin (from left), John Smith and Tony Cason performed at a Jackson-Lee dinner on Jan. 21 at Captain Joe's in Waycross, hosted by the Clement Evans Camp. The popular group performed some period pieces and some of their own songs — "Lord, I Hope I'm Not Dying in Vain," "Southern Belle" and "Confederate Man" among them — for the audience of about 50. Attendees included some visitors from Douglas-Coffee County where efforts are still ongoing to organize a new camp. The Rebelaires, who have performed at many SCV conventions and varied functions still have CDs in stock.

YOUR GEORGIA DIVISION COMMANDER
JACK BRIDWELL
SOUND EXPERIENCE & TRUSTED LEADERSHIP

Brothers,

We have come a long way together through the years. We have had many tribulations, as a Division, and have had to work and fight through together. We also have had many successes that we all can be proud of as well. Through it all we have moved our Division forward to be the largest and the most progressive Division in the entire Confederation. The Georgia Division is always on the “cutting edge” of new initiatives that modernize our Division to keep up with new communication techniques. We continue to build our Division to be more efficient and to offer more services to our membership. Most importantly we have always been on the forefront of protecting and preserving the good name of the Confederate Soldier and fulfilling our Charge.

It has always been my honor to serve as your Division Commander. My desire is to continue moving our Division forward for a final term as your Division Commander. I humbly ask for your support at the up-coming 2016 Division Reunion in Covington on June 11.

Re-elect Jack Bridwell,
Georgia Division Commander

Lexington, Va., February 8, 1858

My Dear Sister:

Your very welcome letter of last week reached me this morning, and I am rejoiced to learn that you are so much concerned about “the one thing needful.” I have borne in mind that our sainted mother’s prayers would not be forgotten by our heavenly Father. Though dead, her prayers, I trusted, would be precious in the sight of the Lord. The Saviour says in Mark, sixteenth chapter, sixteenth verse: “He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved.” But you may ask, “What is it to believe?”

To explain this I will quote from an able theologian, a devoted servant of God. To believe, in the sense in which the word is used here, is feeling and acting as if there were a God, a heaven, a hell; as if we were sinners and must die; as if we deserved eternal death, and were in danger of it. And in view of all, casting our eternal interests on the mercy of God, in Christ Jesus. To do all this is to be a Christian.

You speak of having done all that you know in order to be accepted. This is too apt to be our error. We must not depend on making ourselves holy, but just come to the Father and ask, for the sake of Jesus, and rely entirely on the merits of Christ for our prayer being answered. The Father loves the Son, and for His sake pardons those who plead the Son’s merits. We should never think of presenting any merits of our own, for we are all sinners. Do not trouble yourself too much about not having repented enough for your sins, for your letter shows that you have much concern about the subject. But let me advise you simply to do as God enabled me to do: that is, to resolve to spend the remaining part of life in His service, to obey the teachings of the Bible until death, and to reply entirely on the mercy of God for being saved. And though the future looked dark, it has become very bright. Never despair; even old Christians sometimes have dark moments. Never omit to pray at regular times. For years your salvation has been my daily prayer and shall continue so.

Write to me often, and tell me all your trials, that I may be able as an instrument in the hands of God of doing something for your eternal welfare…. Were it not for my throat, Anna and myself would like very much to pay you a visit this winter. My throat and the sale of a neighbor’s property next week are the two obstacles. Anna is anxious to go next week. She joins me in love to you all.

Your affectionate brother,

THOMAS

8th BRIGADE REPORT

We'd like to wish everyone a Happy and Joyous Confederate History and Heritage Month (in spite of that sorry back stabbing Nathan Deal). A number of our Camps are planning Confederate Memorial Day observances, even though the scalawag politicians and their willful accomplices in the media are doing all they can to put the kibosh on such displays of Southern pride. I hope and pray we'll not knock under to their attempts at destroying the memory of those who gave so much for our freedom. Remember, "tis the Cause and not the fate of the Cause that is glorious" Maj. R.E. Wilson, CSA.

W.D. Mitchell, Camp-163, With Commander Jason Harpe will be assisting the John B. Gordon UDC, Chapter-383 with their annual Confederate Day Memorial Service at the United Methodist Church Chapel in Thomasville. The service will be on Saturday, April 2nd at 10:00 AM. Camp-163 meets at Harpe's home on an as needed basis.

John K. McNeill, Camp-674 With Commander Pete Cowart had a large turn out for the recent project of replacing old wooden crosses on the graves of over 90 Confederate Soldiers at the Greenfield Church Confederate cemetery. Georgia Division Commander Jack Bridwell, and his brother, Compatriot Ernie Bridwell, both of the McNeill Camp fabricated new crosses out of square steel tubing and had them powder coated. Compatriot Charlie Crisp also a member of the McNeill Camp donated approximately $2,000.00 for the project. Fifteen members of the Camp fell out on Saturday morning, March 5th, to dig holes, and pour concrete to secure the crosses. The members of the John K. McNeill, Camp-674 will be assisting the Moultrie McNeill UDC, Chapter-661 in their annual Confederate Memorial Day Service. The service will be held on Sunday, April 24th at 3:00 PM at the Confederate Monument on the Square in Moultrie. Rifles and cannons are urged to attend, and everyone is welcome.

Camp-674 meets every second Monday of the month (except December) at the Museum of Colquitt County History in Moultrie at 7:30 PM.

Jefferson Davis Cowboys, Camp-682 with newly elected Commander Hershell Smith (erroneously listed as Hershell Johnson in my last report) were unable to meet in March, but plan to discuss either a living history or a memorial service at their April meeting.

Camp-682 meet the 2nd Tuesday of each month at the Jeff Davis Park in Irwinville. The time of the meeting is 7:00 PM. For further information contact Commander Smith at (229) 425-2966.

Yancey Independents, Camp-693 with Commander Bo Slack reports that they had a vandalism of one of their recruiting sign. It appears that someone had cut the sign down, and left it laying on the ground. Anyone with information on who might have been involved, please inform the local authorities. The Independents are planning a Confederate Memorial Day Service at the Worth County Court House. The event will be on Sunday, April 10th at 2:00 PM. Rifles and cannons are welcome and urged to attend.

Camp-693 meet the 3rd Tuesday of each month on the bottom floor of the Worth County/Sylvester Library at 7:30 PM. All are welcome.

States Rights Guard, Camp-1551 in Rochelle with Commander Raleigh Gibbs meets on an as needed basis.

Wire Grass Greys, Camp-1687 in Adel with Commander Barry Resta meets on an as needed basis.

Gentlemen of the 13th Brigade

It has been my honor to serve as your Brigade Commander these past two years. The most rewarding part of serving in this position has been the opportunity to meet many of you. The level of activity and the dedication of each Camp to preserve the memory of our ancestors and the Cause for which they fought has truly been outstanding. This has been a learning and enjoyable experience for me. With your vote and support it would be my honor to serve another term as your Brigade Commander. I hope to see each of you in June at the Georgia Division Reunion proudly hosted by the 13ths own Confederate Memorial Camp 1432 and the Maj. Gen. Joseph Wheeler Camp 863.

Lt. Commander South’s Report

I joined Camp 932 in the summer of 2002. The first Reunion I attended was 2003, in Statesboro. The main issue that year was a dues increase. At that time it was $6.00 per year, and the proposal was to increase dues by $6.00, in two installments of $3.00 each. WOW. The Georgia Division was going to DOUBLE the dues. At that time, I was gainfully employed, and I couldn’t understand what the uproar was about.

Even now, in semi-retirement and on a fixed income, I still don’t understand why $12.00 per year is a problem. Just think how much it cost our ancestors to stand up and defend their families, homes, faith, and freedom.

I mention that to say this: Let’s focus on what we need to do to defend the freedoms we have left in this Country, and put aside petty politics and personal criticisms. All of us have shortcomings, and make mistakes.

As someone wiser than me once said: “I ain’t what I want to be. I ain’t what I ought to be. But, thank God I ain’t what I used to be.”

It’s an election year at Division and National. Do your duty, attend the Reunions, and vote. While you’re campaigning, remember to be truthful about the candidates you support and the ones you don’t. Walls have ears, and whatever you say in private has a way of making a public showing sooner or later.

See you in Conyers and Dallas, Lord willing.

Thank God I’m a Southern boy!

Haralson Invincibles Camp #673 Report

It is on a sad note we open this report, that former Camp member and 11th Brigade Commander Curtis “Bear” Hamrick passed away on March 6th. Our deepest sympathies go out to the Hamrick family.

Our camp played host to the largest Pro-Confederate event seen in the 11th Brigade in years! The March 5th “Confederate Flag Day Ride and Rally” was a huge success.

Thanks again to all who made it happen!

4 of our members gave radio interviews about the March 5th Rally and various Confederate Heritage related issues.

Our Facebook page “ www.facebook.com/haralsominvincibles “ saw a big spike in new followers from the promotion of Confederate Flag Day. We are now less than 200 likes away from having the largest Facebook following in the 11th Brigade.

We will be receiving our annual “Confederate Heritage and History Month” Proclamation from the Haralson County Board of Commissioners on April 5th.

We meet at Wright Way BBQ in Bremen across from Plantation Pipe-line next to Old Towne Music Hall on the 1st Wednesday of each month, located at 1003 Alabama Ave S, Bremen, GA 30110. Y’all come grab a bite to eat and sit in on our meetings.

Our next two Camp meetings will be starting at 6:30pm – May 4th and June 1st

One of our newest members is a very skilled artist. His name is Tyler Jordan Daniel and he drew this fantastic rendering of General JEB Stuart!
“A Tribute To The Unknown Soldier”

By Ralph West Mills

His DNA has long since returned to the elements of the soil where he once trod and made decisions of life. No one remains that knew him. His memory left this earth with the last of those who shared his life.

It was in a mass burial trench across the Delaware River, where he was laid alongside his comrades after succumbing to the smallpox epidemic when his system was weakened from wounds received at the Wheatfield. No man knows the spot, but where today the mowers occasionally cross his face, a brass plaque upon an obelisk lists his long forgotten name.

It was in a Pennsylvania corn field hurriedly transformed into the mass grave which held him and his comrades-in-arms where they fell in ranks as they deployed across the open ground. Yankee farmers defiantly made a crop each year with his body supplying the nutrients, even plowing up part of his remains along with the rotting shoe leather he once wore thin. Again, no man knows the spot, but Park rangers can point to the general vicinity.

It was on the back side of Missionary Ridge in a poor widow’s garden behind her simple home, where he was laid in a shallow grave, the spot lost forever with her passing. His comrades only knew that he was missing. Today, the foundation of a modest home within a sprawling subdivision encroaches upon his spot, known only to God Himself.

It was in Oakland where he was interred with thousands of his kind, unknown to the calloused hands of those who covered his body with red dirt. Today, the open space belies an accurate number, or even his unit or that of his comrades who fell in the battles which raged all around.

It was along a tangled path in the Wilderness where he fell in the hail of lead that shocked him and his comrades as they stumbled into the fore. In a more tranquil day soon after, the hogs scattered his body parts throughout the thicket which is today a busy intersection that covers the last remnants of his earthly existence.

And, it was in Oakwood, a convenient wagon distance from Chimborazo where his body was carried to the burying ground, after he suffered the delirium of fever for five days. Today, a small concrete marker with a metal number just visible above the grass marks the general spot where he shares the sod with three other soldiers, clusters of four, times thousands; all because the modern federal government does not consider him or his comrades worthy of a VA headstone, even though they died Americans all.

But while his DNA and even the mention of his name was forever lost to his generation, it yet lives in the few, the Sons of Confederate Veterans, who refuse to allow his noble memory to vanish from the face of the earth. We few, who stand in defiance against those who would remove every vestige of his time and the home he fought to defend. Those male heirs, who carry yet the same DNA along with the attributes forged in the heat of battle, or under severe deprivation, where they were overcome by nothing more than his sense of honor and duty. The few, who would courageously speak the truth of his existence in the face of the revisionist and the doctrine of political correctness that has become the ideology of the day.

We few, we Sons of Confederate Veterans, must not ignore the valor which caused him to charge directly into the muzzles of guns loaded with double canister and certain death. We cannot forget his persistent perseverance through starvation, exposure, pestilence and disease, and all the while answering the long roll to fight yet again.

From where do such men come, and are they worthy of remembrance? And who are these so long forgotten? They were sons and fathers, brothers and cousins, husbands and sweethearts, uncles and brothers-in-law, nephews, friends, the learned and the uneducated, the complex and the simple, men as tough as old leather and gentlemen with un-called hands. They were men with the gift of language, men who could plow a straight line or wield the hammer with unequaled skill, men who could sing the tenor line with the voice of an angel, and men who had never seen the interior of a church building.

These were men who loved and were loved in return. Men known throughout their communities as “a man of his word”. They were preachers, teachers, millers, wheelwrights, common laborers, physicians, masons, bankers, farmers and farm laborers. They were Baptists, Methodists, Presbyterians, Catholics, Episcopalians, Jews, agnostics, atheists, backslidden saints and sinners.

But, they were Confederate soldiers all, sent from homes where some measure of honor and duty were impressed into their core belief system. They were sons of the South, and never before or since, have citizen soldiers bathed themselves in such glory. Glory of unprecedented valor, duty, and honor.

For the unknown among them, those MIA’s, those buried in mass graves without identification, those whose last breaths upon this earth were witnessed by strangers or no man at all and who were then left where they fell, we can only hope that there is one of the few living near who will honor these dead and their memories as an act of duty in the up-coming Memorial season and those yet to come.

But for the tens of thousands who left this life known to survivors, and received a proper burial with a memorial stone at their head, it is the sacred duty of every one of us, the Sons of Confederate Veterans, to do our part in assuring that their memory will live until we ourselves, or our posterity are no longer on this earth to perform such duty.

As one of the few, and as long as I draw breath in this mortal state, I pledge my labors and my sacred honor to live out “The Charge” to the best of my abilities, and to never allow a Confederate veteran’s memory to be lost by neglect to future generations. So help me God!

Deo Vindice,
Compatriot Ralph West Mills

IN THEIR OWN WORDS

Eccles. 1:9, “The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done is that which shall be done; and there is no new thing under the sun.”

God’s Word teaches that there is nothing new under the sun. The ideas and systems discussed here are as old as the fall of Adam, as old as the struggle between good and evil.

Our Founders bequeathed us a republic with warnings and admonitions to be good stewards of it. That Republic was executed in 1861 and buried in 1865. In early 1861 newly elected President Abraham Lincoln said to his secretary of the treasury, Salmon Chase, “At the risk of saving the Union I have destroyed the Republic. The South which I loathe is in front of me and the bankers which I hate are behind me.”

William Joshua Bush
Georgia’s Last Surviving Confederate Soldier

William Joshua Bush was born July 10, 1845 [1848?] in Wilkinson County, Georgia. He joined the Confederate Army in 1861 along with his cousin and became part of Co. B, 14th Regiment, Georgia Volunteer Infant-try, Army of Northern Virginia.
In October of 1861 he was mustered out of the army in Richmond, Virginia for some sort of injury, but later rejoined in October of 1864 and fought valiantly in the battles of Atlanta,
Milledgeville, Cross Keys and Duncan’s Old Field. He served with a company which called itself Joe Brown’s Pets and remained with the company until it surrendered at Stephen’s Station of the Central Railway in 1865.
Bush was never a general but was given the honorary title because of the many offices which he held in the United Confederate Veterans.

He died on Armistice Day,
November 11, 1952 at Fitzgerald, Georgia, aged 107 years and was buried at Evergreen Cemetery.

Allegedly Bush was only 13 when he first enlisted in 1861. If that were true, he was “only”
104 when he passed away in 1952.
